

Purple Monkey Project is looking to fill the role of President

Are you looking for an organization to lead that provides support to the community's youth, where you can utilize your professional and personal networks to make a difference in the lives of many? The Purple Monkey Project Board of Directors is currently looking for our next President, who will play a vital role in leading our organization and ensuring efficiency and accuracy in governance over the scholarships that we give, events that we put on and participate in, and the partnerships that we create and maintain. The next President will also lead our strategic planning process as we develop our three-year growth strategy. For more details, read below:

The President will oversee the administration, compliance, programs and implementation of the strategic plan of the organization. Other key duties include resource development, image building and management and community outreach and engagement. The position reports directly to the Board of Directors.
