Sharing Our Story

Over the past several months we have been able to share our story in exciting ways. We were invited to speak at Kings Island's annual full-time employee meeting, hung out with Mark Borison on Jungle Jim's Podcast, met with student leaders at St. Joseph Consolidated School and most recently sang the National Anthem at a Wright State Basketball game. We are always looking for ways to share our story. If you have a referral, please email us at contact@purplemonkeyproject.org
